ANSWER AND AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES OF RELIEF DEFENDANT MAURICE D'SOUZA

Relief Defendant Maurice D'Souza, by his undersigned attorneys, hereby answers the numbered paragraphs of the Complaint (the "Complaint") filed by Plaintiff Federal Trade Commission ("FTC" or "Plaintiff") as follows:

1. Paragraph 1 states a legal conclusion to which no response is required. To the extent a response is required, Defendant lacks knowledge and information sufficient to form a belief as the truth or falsity of the allegations contained in Paragraph 1, and therefore denies the allegations.
2. Paragraph 2 states a legal conclusion to which no response is required. To the extent a response is required, Defendant lacks knowledge and information sufficient to form a belief as the truth or falsity of the allegations contained in Paragraph 2, and therefore denies the allegations.

3. Paragraph 3 states a legal conclusion to which no response is required. To the extent a response is required, Defendant lacks knowledge and information sufficient to form a belief as the truth or falsity of the allegations contained in Paragraph 3, and therefore denies the allegations.
4. Mr. D'Souza denies that the FTC has authority to seek restitution, consumer redress or disgorgement with respect to conduct that took place outside the United States and that does not affect domestic commerce. Otherwise, the Defendant admits the allegations in Paragraph 4.
5. The subject matter of this paragraph is part of an ongoing investigation by the U.S. Attorney for the Northern District of Illinois. Thus, upon the advice of his counsel, Mr. D'Souza is exercising his right under the Fifth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States. Accordingly, Mr. D'Souza respectfully declines to answer the allegations contained in Paragraph 5 on the ground that his answer might tend to incriminate him. Mr. D'Souza further respectfully requests that his exercise of his Constitutional right be treated as a denial pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 8(b).

65. The subject matter of this paragraph is part of an ongoing investigation by the U.S. Attorney for the Northern District of Illinois. Upon the advice of his counsel, Mr. D'Souza is exercising his right under the Fifth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States. Accordingly, Mr. D'Souza respectfully declines to answer the allegations contained in Paragraph 65 on the ground that his answer might tend to incriminate him. Mr. D'Souza further respectfully requests that his exercise of his Constitutional right be treated as a denial pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 8(b).
66. Paragraph 66 states a legal conclusions to which no response is required. To the extent a response is required, the subject matter of this paragraph is part of an ongoing investigation by the U.S. Attorney for the Northern District of Illinois. Upon the advice of his counsel, Mr. D'Souza is exercising his right under the Fifth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States. Accordingly, Mr. D'Souza respectfully declines to answer the allegations contained in Paragraph 66 on the ground that his answer might tend to incriminate him. Mr. D'Souza further respectfully requests that his exercise of his Constitutional right be treated as a denial pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 8(b).

67. The subject matter of this paragraph is part of an ongoing investigation by the U.S. Attorney for the Northern District of Illinois. Upon the advice of his counsel, Mr. D'Souza is exercising his right under the Fifth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States. Accordingly, Mr. D'Souza respectfully declines to answer the allegations contained in Paragraph 67 on the ground that his answer might tend to incriminate him. Mr. D'Souza further respectfully requests that his exercise of his Constitutional right be treated as a denial pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 8(b).
68. The subject matter of this paragraph is part of an ongoing investigation by the U.S. Attorney for the Northern District of Illinois. Upon the advice of his counsel, Mr. D'Souza is exercising his right under the Fifth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States. Accordingly, Mr. D'Souza respectfully declines to answer the allegations contained in Paragraph 68 on the ground that his answer might tend to incriminate him. Mr. D'Souza further respectfully requests that his exercise of his Constitutional right be treated as a denial pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 8(b).
69. The subject matter of this paragraph is part of an ongoing investigation by the U.S. Attorney for the Northern District of Illinois. Upon the advice of his counsel, Mr. D'Souza is exercising his right under the Fifth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States. Accordingly, Mr. D'Souza respectfully declines to answer the allegations contained in Paragraph 69 on the ground that his answer might tend to incriminate him. Mr. D'Souza further respectfully requests that his exercise of his Constitutional right be treated as a denial pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 8(b).

70. The subject matter of this paragraph is part of an ongoing investigation by the U.S. Attorney for the Northern District of Illinois. Upon the advice of his counsel, Mr. D'Souza is exercising his right under the Fifth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States. Accordingly, Mr. D'Souza respectfully declines to answer the allegations contained in Paragraph 70 on the ground that his answer might tend to incriminate him. Mr. D'Souza further respectfully requests that his exercise of his Constitutional right be treated as a denial pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 8(b).
71. The subject matter of this paragraph is part of an ongoing investigation by the U.S. Attorney for the Northern District of Illinois. Upon the advice of his counsel, Mr. D'Souza is exercising his right under the Fifth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States. Accordingly, Mr. D'Souza respectfully declines to answer the allegations contained in Paragraph 71 on the ground that his answer might tend to incriminate him. Mr. D'Souza further respectfully requests that his exercise of his Constitutional right be treated as a denial pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 8(b).
72. The subject matter of this paragraph is part of an ongoing investigation by the U.S. Attorney for the Northern District of Illinois. Upon the advice of his counsel, Mr. D'Souza is exercising his right under the Fifth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States. Accordingly, Mr. D'Souza respectfully declines to answer the allegations contained in Paragraph 72 on the ground that his answer might tend to incriminate him. Mr. D'Souza further respectfully requests that his exercise of his Constitutional right be treated as a denial pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 8(b).
73. Paragraph 73 of the Complaint contains legal conclusions to which no response is required. To the extent a response is required, Mr. D'Souza denies that the FTC Act empowers this Court to order consumer redress, disgorgement and restitution with respect to conduct that took place outside the United States and that does not affect domestic commerce but otherwise admits Paragraph 73.

To the extent that the “Prayer for Relief” section of Plaintiff’s Complaint contains factual allegations to which a response is required, the subject matter of the Prayer for Relief is part of an ongoing investigation by the U.S. Attorney for the Northern District of Illinois. Upon the advice of his counsel, Mr. D’Souza is exercising his right under the Fifth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States. Accordingly, Mr. D’Souza respectfully declines to answer the allegations contained in the Prayer for Relief on the ground that his answer might tend to incriminate him. Mr. D’Souza further respectfully requests that his exercise of his Constitutional right be treated as a denial pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 8(b).

AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES

Mr. D’Souza respectfully asserts the following affirmative defenses:

1. The Complaint fails to state a claim upon which relief can be granted against Mr. D’Souza.
2. This Court lacks subject matter jurisdiction and statutory authority to order consumer redress for non-United States citizens who are injured by conduct that took place outside the United States.
3. Notwithstanding this Court’s denial without prejudice of Maurice D’Souza’s Motion to Dismiss for Lack of Personal Jurisdiction (Docket No. 121), this Court lacks personal jurisdiction over Maurice D’Souza.
4. The FTC fails to allege sufficient facts to properly join Maurice D’Souza as a relief defendant.

5. Mr. D'Souza reserves the right to raise such additional affirmative defenses as may be established during discovery and by the evidence in this case.
